Once again the Guyana Public Service Union (GPSU) is currently organising its Members to celebrate Workers' Day 2026 which is also known as 'May Day'.

The GPSU, at its Statutory Executive Council Meeting held on April 24, 2026 has decided to once again participate in the usual May Day Parade and Rally in celebrating the dignity of May Day 2026. Workers are encouraged to join the Parade and Rally on May 1st, 2026. The Parade will commence at Parade Ground, Middle Street, Georgetown at 7:30 am and proceed through the Streets of Georgetown, concluding with a Rally at the Guyana Local Government Officers Union, Woolford Avenue, Georgetown.

The GPSU encourages members to come out and celebrate our proud history in recognizing the valuable contributions of our forefather in securing and safeguarding Decent Work for all. Please attire in symbolic red t-shirts, where special uniforms are not desired for that day.

Yours sincerely,

Dawn Gardener
